
The Princess Frog - The Tsarevna Frog - marquetry by Nikolay Serov - The Marquetarian

The Princess Frog - The Tsarevna Frog

marquetry

Natural wood veneer

The work is based on The Frog Princess, a Russian fairy-tale.
The harmony of the painting is reached due to the interaction of two planes:
the foregroung and the background.
The viewer's attention is drawn to seemingly small details;
but as he glances at the painting, his eye is caught by the frog, the conceptual core of the painting.
She is so real in this fantasy world that the boundary between the fantastic and the real vanishes.
Their combination creates the uniqueness of the painting.
Not a single shade is repeated twice, because there are no two similar textures of veneer.
Another unique feature of the work is that no paint altogether is used.
